

CBCC Christmas Charity Fundraiser

Bidding Items & Guidelines

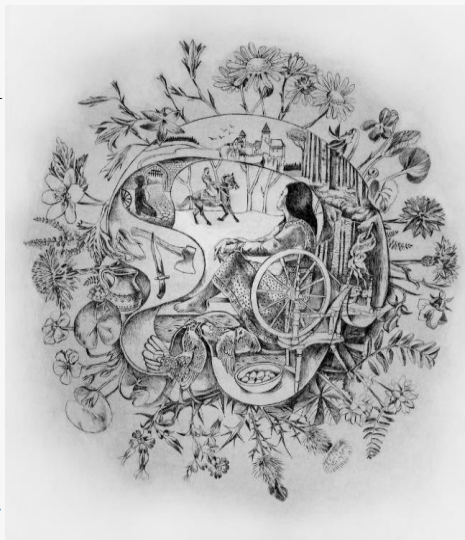

December 1, 2020

Czech British Chamber of Commerce

ITEM 1: Míla Fůrstová - Zlatý kolovrat, KYTICE, (blue on white), etching, 56x64cm, 2020

- 21 November 2020 marks 150th anniversary of Czech poet's Karel Jaromír Erben's death. He is best known for his collection of poems Kytice (Bouquet). Mila was asked to illustrate the new Czech and English translated edition coming to UK bookstores soon. This obtained quite some attention from the press, and not only in the Czech Republic.
- Please check out the Forbes article with a video of Kytice illustrations in the making and a story in Czech Television:
  - <https://forbes.cz/jej-dila-vlastn-mick-jagger-i-alzbeta-ii-nyni-mila-furstova-nailustrovala-erbenovu-kytici/>
  - <https://ct24.ceskatelevize.cz/kultura/3188406-lepsi-horor-cesky-nez-anglicky-kytice-vyjde-v-britanii-s-ilustracemi-mily-furstove>
- Mila kindly contributed the author's print of the book cover, first print of the "Zlatý kolovrat" poem theme. These prints are generally not for sale and are highly exclusive.
- Minimum bidding amount of GBP 1,000.

Upon request we are able to share high definition picture of the piece

ITEM 2: Jakub Hrůša – signed conductor's baton

© PRAŽSKÉ JARO | PRAGUE SPRING FESTIVAL 2019 - FOTO EVAN MALY

- Jakub Hrůša is Chief Conductor of the Bamberg Symphony, Principal Guest Conductor of the Philharmonia Orchestra, and Principal Guest Conductor of the Czech Philharmonic. He is a frequent guest with many of the world's greatest orchestras.
- Recent highlights of performances include debuts with the Vienna Philharmonic, Orchestre de Paris, and the NHK Symphony.
- As a recording artist, his recent releases include Dvořák Symphonies, for which he received recent Grammy nomination!
- Jakub Hrůša has studied conducting at the Academy of Performing Arts in Prague, where his teachers included Jiří Bělohlávek
- https://www.idnes.cz/kultura/hudba/grammy-ondrej-pivec-jakub-hrusa.A201125\_130039\_hudba\_jgo
- Minimum bidding amount of GBP 400

ITEM 3: Petr Čech – signed goal keeper's gloves

- Czech professional footballer combining playing and being technical and performance advisor for Chelsea.
- Without any doubt the best goal-keeper of his time, Petr Čech started his professional career in Chmel Blšany in 1999, later continued in Sparta Praha, spending most of his professional career in Chelsea (2004-2015) and Arsenal (2015-2019).
- He represented the Czech Republic in 124 matches, helped the Czechs reach the semi-finals in Euro 2004 and was voted into the Euro 2004 All-Star team.
- Petr contributed his signed goal-keeping gloves.
- Minimum bidding amount of GBP 200

ITEM 4: Tomáš Souček and Vladimír Coufal - signed West Ham jersey

- Successful Czech footballers joined the West Ham United football club this year and are now pushing West Ham up the Premier League table.
- Formerly star players of Slavia Praha, both are regular members of Czech National team.
- Both contributed their signed West Ham jerseys.
- Minimum bidding amount GBP 200 per each.

Illustrative

ITEM 6: Professor Jan Marek – private collection photograph

- Professor Marek is currently a Lead Consultant of Echocardiography and Prenatal Cardiology at the Great Ormond Street Hospital, and Professor at the Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences at University College London (UCL) and Charles University, Prague.
- Professor Marek is a patron of this fundraiser and as a passionate photographer he kindly contributed a photo from his private collection.
- Photo dimensions: 297x430mm
- Minimum bidding amount of GBP 50.

Photograph by Professor Marek

ITEM 7: – Lunch/Dinner for two at Bohemia House + 2 bottles of Moravian wine

<https://www.facebook.com/BohemiaHouseLondon/>

- Bohemia House in West Hampstead, the only Czech & Slovak restaurant in London, donates a voucher for lunch or dinner for two + two bottles of Moravian wine
- In January 2020 Zdenek Kudr became the new owner and brought new revamped menu with excellent Czech/Slovak traditional meals
- Mr Kudr personally donates 2 bottles of Moravian wine specially bottled on 8th November 2020 for the 11th November 2020 Saint Martin of Tours' feast day

CBCC members Christmas Fundraising Bidding Guidelines

- Start of bidding: at the moment of sending CBCC communication on Monday 30 November.
- Submitting a bid: You can submit your bid by sending an email to matous@cbcc.org.uk. You need to receive your bid receipt confirmation from CBCC, to make the bid registered.
- Time window for the bidding: From Tuesday 1st December to 8pm Friday 11th December 2020.
- Update on the bids submitted: CBCC will share with their contact base the progress of bidding on an ongoing basis, but no less than 2 times on Friday 4 December and Thursday 10 December. The update will include an items list with the submitted bidding amounts.
- Winning bid: The highest bid submitted by 8pm Friday 11th December wins, subject to exceeding the Minimum bidding value.
- Funds transferred: Bid amount needs to be transferred to CBCC's account no later than 15 December 2020. If not transferred the bidding items will be passed on to the second highest bidder.
- Handing over items to winners: CBCC will strive to hand over or ship the items to the winners as soon as possible. Bearing in mind that Christmas is peak time for post and deliveries, CBCC cannot be held responsible for delivering the items in time for Christmas.
- Confidentiality – names of bidders will not be revealed, unless the winning bidder agrees otherwise.

CBCC commits to pass all proceeds of the fundraiser to GOSH Charity in full and will inform its members and winners of the items how they were spent.

CBCC members Christmas Raffle Guidelines

6 raffle prizes

Prizes: 5 signed CDs by Jakub Hrůša and mixed case of 6 Czech/Moravian quality wines from Basket Press Wines worth GBP 120

- Who is eligible: CBCC paying members at the time of the raffle taking place on Friday 11 December 8pm.
- Who is not eligible: Non-members & CBCC Executive Committee members.
- Draw: Two members of the CBCC Executive committee will perform traditional manual draw of numbers, where each number stands for individual CBCC member.
- Winner: Number / member that is drawn.
- Fees: Raffle is free of charge for all CBCC paying members. Non-members cannot participate.
- Handing over items to winners: CBCC will strive to hand over or ship the items to the winners as soon as possible. Bearing in mind that Christmas is peak time for post and deliveries, CBCC cannot be held responsible for delivering the items in time for Christmas.

